1.1.140
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, November 19, 2003
www.unc.bz

1. What you are doing with your daughter Amy—sharing, razoring off rough edges of thoughts almost correct, to leave the correctness of My best, My desire, My truth—your potential, her potential—realized each day—asking, sharing, challenging each other so tenderly, lovingly, respectfully, asking questions and delving into Me—what I've said—words I've given you, scriptures revealed, searching together, seeking together, meeting and asking and following up and being accountable for what you are responsible, Ted, is My model of how so many things can work, and do work, and more should work.

2. Enjoy the laughter and honing that I am doing in you both as you hone each other, and mature in synergy while seeking, searching and laughing, while being accountable to ensure being responsible.

3. Oh friends you are so deeply with your daughter Amy—such friendship, such friendship, such loveship, such respect you have and exhibit and show each other, imposing yourself on never, but submitting, submitting, submitting to each other in love. Oh Ted, how powerful, how immensely powerful, how synergistically Spirit-led-of-Me powerful. That's why, that's one reason, multiple reasons why, you both are accelerating at the pace you are in Me.

4. Friendship, friendship with your daughter, friendship with your son, friendship with your daughter in love Marci, friendship, friendship, friendship. Tell of your friendship with your kids, tell of your kindness, tell of your respect, tell of your friendship, friendship, friendship—that comes out of love and honor and respect and patience and tenderness and smiles and hugs and affirmation, affirmation, affirmation—affirmation after affirmation—consecutive affirmations building the confidence and opening their eyes, letting love flow—friendship, friendship, friendship.

5. Mature My fathers who are fathers into friendship with their kids and help them understand My friendships with My friends—submitted, honoring, respecting, suggesting, asking, seeking, searching, reaching into each other to affirm and bless and bring the best out at all times.

6. Maturity as a process—friendship as a process—directorship into friendship for My fathers who fathering skill raise exponentially in My synergized ones with Me.

7. Thank you. Post this word and share it. Think it not that it's for you alone.

8. Above all else, share Me, share My Words to you and happy, with laughter, smiles, affirmations a plenty, be with all My seeking-Me. And tender be with all—tender, tender, patient, kind, loving, understanding—watching Me work and woo and being Me.

9. I thank you.
10. I appreciate you.
11. I bless you.
12. Speak.